NARRATIVE:

John Yocius has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20. His convictions include multiple assaults, burglary, grand theft of property, multiple vehicle thefts, multiple cases of battery, forgery, resisting an officer, petty theft, false identification, multiple cases of possession of controlled substances, vandalism and multiple cases of driving under the influence of alcohol. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 2 year term for forgery. Yocius was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on May 22, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Yocius qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for assault is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
